

Personal Kabbalah Life Analysis

for Valentin (Georg) Mustermann 03.06.1976

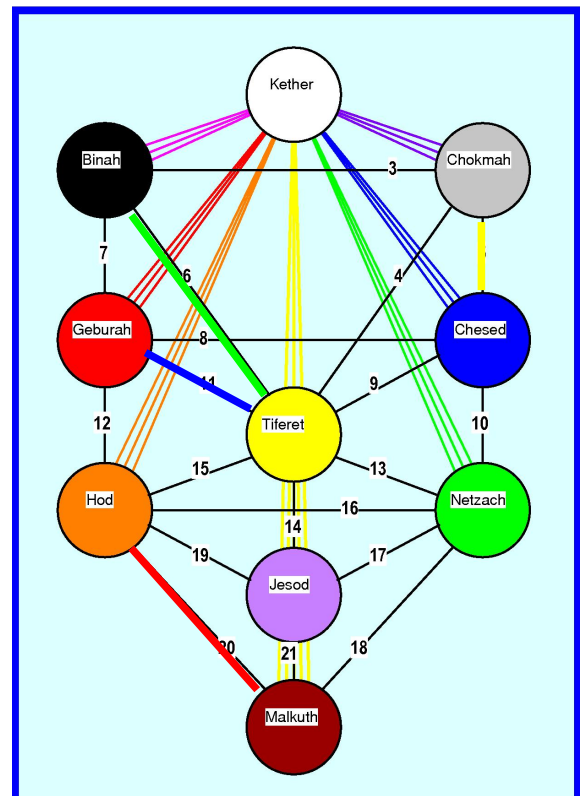

From this analysis, you can gather your learning and life tasks which your soul has chosen for this life. The two pictures, the Energy Picture on the left and the tree of life below are of great importance for you and they have been personally worked out for you.

The Energy Picture

shows you which exceptional qualities of spiritual energies have an effect upon you in your life. Through these energies, you are enabled to master the tasks in your life that are connected with them. It is your free will to accept this and to put it into effect. The Energy Picture also shows you the disturbances that can happen in body areas, in which the energy isn't realized. By means of these physical disturbances, your soul wants to point out to you that you are doing something wrong. You will discern your faults from the Energy Picture.

The Tree of Life

has been the traditional central picture of Kabbala for thousands of years. It is the portrayal of the powers in the universe and their interaction. The symbolically portrayed powers show the current condition of your being, energy forms and intelligence forms. A new lively consciousness arises from the interaction of these conditions or brainpowers. These awareness energies have an effect upon the entire universe and therefore also upon the entire human being, upon you personally and upon your soul. You can gather further information about your soul and its aims from your Tree of Life, in which your personal ways are marked. It becomes the reason for your incarnation, the tool, with which you want to work and with which the aim of your life will be worked out and interpreted.

The Kabbalah Life Analysis

for Valentin (Georg) Mustermann 03.06.1976

General Information for Kabbalah Life Analysis

Dear Kabbalah friend !

You are holding a wonderful new document in your hands, the source of which was discovered thousands of years ago by mystics. The name Kabbalah means "The Book of Buried Wisdom". It comes from Hebrew and means deliverance. A Jewish legend states that this wisdom was given by the angels and put into written form by Abraham. Kabbalah is the mystical teaching from Israel which is rapidly gaining in meaning as our times change. For a very long time, these teachings were thought of as secret, but the meaning has now been discovered. The meaning of these numbers and letters has now been brought to us. The centrepiece of the Kabbalah is the whole person which stretches from matter to the divine. The Kabbalah along with Christianity concentrates on the following:

- * The mastering of daily life
- * The connection and relationship with God and
- * The soul and its individuality.

This document will concentrate on the meaning of your name and date of birth in this life, and the following deciding questions:

- * What is the main task in my life, in which tasks have I been born into?
- * What does the blueprint of my soul look like?
- * How will I recognise my mistakes?

The answers to the above questions will be answered in the course of this document so you can refer to it if you discover health problems and aren't sure of the reason our soul wants us to take a closer look at ourselves. In order to do this, it is important to understand that this analysis is not written in stone, but a possibility for your learning program, taking your right to decide into consideration.

When our souls decide to incarnate again on this earth, it takes new assignments upon itself. These new tasks are particularly important to your soul as the goal is perfect completeness. These tasks are often ones which you were unable to fulfil in a former life.

The name given to you at birth, including your Christian name and your date of birth, is very important for the ascertainment and interpretation of your journey through life, including the goals and the assignments.

The fact that you chose this name, and not a different one, has its reasons. Maybe your parents had chosen another name prior to your birth, but at the last minute changed their minds to comply with the wishes of your soul. You should view this name as a window to your soul. All of this is not coincidence but a deep wish within your soul that you have this name with these particular tasks. Neither is it a coincidence that you have now decided to involve yourself with this analysis, and look into the mirror of your soul.

Your name is the name written in your birth certificate. This is also valid in the case of adoption. The first name to be included in the calculation is the one with which you prefer to be addressed or at least have been called by for a few years, but not a passing nickname. It needs to be spelled as in your birth certificate. If you have other first names which are not used and have no meaning to you, they are still important for this analysis. From these names, it is possible to attain knowledge of secondary goals you have decided to undertake in this life. Please check all the spellings of all your names in this document. Your date of birth is also meaningful for this life because on this day, you decided to participate in the school of life. This day was chosen because it gave you the best possibilities to enable you to master your chosen assignments.

Your own personal data allows us to use the Kabbalah method to analyse the questions pertaining to your life, and allow us to see the answers to questions such as which particular subjects should I concentrate on in this life? What does my soul wish to learn in this life and how will it make my mistakes known to me? What does the picture of me and my soul look like?

This picture, this blueprint, is now being held in your hands. The following,

* 1st part applies to the Energy Picture with the points of incoming energy, and your Passion Paths.

* 2nd part concentrates on the Kabbalah Tree of Life.

The text in this analysis is constructed so that you will be able to find your way around this document. Your own personal problem is most certainly referred to or you will recognise it perhaps in an altered form. Please remember that this document is only a template. Your first task is to recognise and find yourself in this text. Please read everything slowly in order for your unconscious mind to absorb the contents. The purpose is an internal recognition and the conscious understanding of the meaning of the Kabbalah. The general text has a upright heading and your own personal text will have a cursive (slanting) heading. If the amount of numbers on the Tree of Life and/or the Energy Picture become too much for you, disregard them for the moment and continue with the text.

1. Section: The Kabbalah Energy Picture.

On page 2 you will find the diagram of the Kabbalah Energy Picture which shows your personal Energy Picture. It shows your own spiritual blueprint. This blueprint is an important guide for your soul to help it achieve its goal here on earth, and for it to indicate to you any mistakes you may have made. This Energy Picture is to show you the results of your decisions as it applies to your physical body.

Before you look deeper at your Energy Picture, I would like to say something general. Derived from the 10 cosmic elementary powers of the Tree of Life, from which you will hear more about in part 2 of this analysis, there are 10 forms of energy which are important for us in reaching our learning goals. In the Kabbalah, these 10 forms of energy are 10 learning experiences which have been allocated different parts of our body and relate to different chakras. These are listed in appendix 1. The energy of life is flowing through the corresponding chakras of our body. It is important that every one of these points of energy entering our body are coupled with a lesson which is connected to our life assignment. The goal is to use this energy and to live with this energy in order to learn our own particular lessons and to grow.

It is generally so, that in these 10 points of incoming power, the life energy is continually flowing. The same rule applies to every person, when there is no energy flow, there is no life. As your soul has set itself particular goals in this life, it has been given the necessary form of energy by our Creator for it to attain these goals.

As you can see in your personal Energy Picture, these additional energies are flowing in at the plotted points. These energies may have different intensities and ranks. The blue numbers in the golden squares shows your lessons to learn. Each person will have a different number of energy flow points, because each person will have its own variety of lessons to learn. This energy gives you the power to complete your lesson. If you utilise this energy to complete this particular lesson given to you by 'fate' then your spiritual energy household will be balanced. However, if you only use a portion of this energy, then the residual energy will remain in the body and may be objectionable and a hindrance. In this case, one can talk about congestion of energy noticeable at a particular point of the body. This is when your Passion Path, your path of suffering begins. This path must not necessarily lead to a bitter end, as you hold all the cards in your hand and can decide whether to continue in the wrong direction, or to turn around. At this point, your soul wishes to tell you that you are "doing something wrong". Or, to put it another way, if you don't fulfil all points of this lesson, your soul will smack you on the back of your hand and show you on a physical level quite plainly that this way of thinking and doing is not acceptable.

Your souls warning can come in the form of a slight cold or even a serious illness. This is your decision depending on how much or how little of this energy you use. The non-use of this energy can only lead to blockages in your chakras and will eventually lead to the bitter end of this Passion Path, of this path of suffering. The diagram can show you exactly where in the body you can find these energy blockages.

In the middle of the Energy Picture you will find the symbol of a body, this is just for your orientation, and to allow you to easily recognise the points of energy flow to your body. It is then calculated at which points you receive the necessary energy for your particular lesson, and at which point(s) any unused energy may be the cause of disturbance. Your personal energy and the pertaining tasks are visible in the golden, yellow boxes. This energy is shown flowing into your body through the blue arrows into the points visible as circles. The number you can see either above or next to the box with * shows the intensity of this energy. The energy can be double or even be multiplied up to 6 times. It shows the ranking of the assignment. The greater this number, the stronger the effect of this path of passion. Now it depends on you to do the right thing with this energy and to master this lesson. The red arrow shows the areas on the body where the unused energies have become a problem. This would be the end of this particular road of passion.

It sometimes happens that the calculation shows the Passion Paths in a chain, one behind the other. In this case, it will be a key task at the front of this chain followed by a succession of lessons. You can recognise this chain on the Energy Picture, when the number of an energy point going into the body is the same as where a red Passion Path is to be found. This means the blockage will remain until you utilise the energy needed to relieve the cause of this Passion Path. The energy flow points free from any blockages, are to be seen as key assignments (show as § in the text of the Energy Picture), and are to be solved first. This is easier to see when one imagines an incorrect incoming energy disturbing the actual energy stream. It is only when the key task is being worked on, that the following lessons can be meaningfully solved. The ensuing lessons are shown with &- in the text. If a chain of passion roads shows up in your analysis, the pertaining point will be described in further text. Such results are to be taken very seriously as your soul has given you so much evidence, that it is necessary to sit up and take notice of this responsibility. You have now been given the chance to view the individual points of this chain and can now start to work on them.

In the case of an incoming energy point having no incoming energy, (no golden box), this means that you have most probably already mastered this task in a previous life. In this case you may find green numbers at various points which refer you to another letter. The first green number in your karmic chapter which you have brought with you into this life and you should and can work with this. The meaning of the first number can be found in enclosure A1. Even though this lesson has already been learned, you should try and remember it and not just deem it as unimportant. It is, so to say, your tool to work with, as you have already mastered using it. You wouldn't dream of removing any stones which block your path with your bare hands when you have a spade in your backpack. If you cannot recall this particular lesson which you have already once learned, thus making a seemingly crass mistake, then the letters will indicate a Passion Path. The meaning can be found in enclosure A2. For example, if the green number is 3>>B this would mean that looking at your lesson number 3 (which you have already learned), if today, you make a major mistake in this area, your soul will make you aware of it in a physical way in the body area B, which in turn means the Passion Path B has been opened. Please don't worry though, you have to have made a grave error in order for this to happen.

In the subsequent text you will find the description of the lesson to be learned followed by the description of the Passion Path. Here you will find clues as to possible problem areas of your body. If you already have problems in the suggested areas, you will be able to decipher which lessons you have not already learned and the connection to the problem. In this case, you only need to look at the energy diagram to see which lesson is being referred to by tracing back from the red arrow or reading it in the text.

From the calculated incoming energy points, and the Passion Paths which belong to these, it is possible to see the diverted energy numbers which enable us to see the deeper meaning of this task.

As each lesson can lead to a different Passion Path, the quality and form may differentiate. This difference can be explored at more depth by looking at the energy number. This number is to be looked upon as an expansion of this lesson and is to be integrated into the complete Energy Picture.

Belonging to each energy number, is a so called block out number that alludes to attributes that have not been lived. These assignments are more than likely in our subconscious minds and although well buried, they wish to be known. By looking at the block out numbers, you can see in which areas you had problems, or uncompleted lessons in the past and which areas you still are not sure you wish to deal with. These particular lessons have often been deeply buried, be it conscious or subconscious, and have been forgotten and/or saved to do on the day of a blue moon and are therefore very important. Erase these tasks out of the dark corners of your subconscious mind and bring them out into the open, into the light. These energy numbers and their corresponding block out numbers can be found in brown on the Energy Picture.

For each calculated point of incoming energy, you will find a description of the meaning of this incoming point, the lesson, and the corresponding Passion Path, as well as the meaning of the number on the Energy Picture and its block out number. Therefore, in each case, you will find a designated section in the following order:

-  Meaning of your personal incoming energy points. This is the description of your task.
-  Meaning of your personal Passion Path, your path of suffering. This shows the body areas in which your soul wants to be noticed and in which you could start to have problems.
-  Meaning of the number on the energy diagram derived from the energy point and the Passion Path.
-  Meaning of the block out number derived from the calculated energy point and Passion Path.
-  Possible further clues to the progress or order of your assignments.

Subsequently:

- * A consideration of the amount of all the energy numbers taken from your Energy Picture. This description rounds off your energy diagram.
- * A further section discusses your ratio of yin/yang in reference to your assignment.

Learning Task No. 4: Essential self expression

This energy flows into your throat chakra that belongs to the mental level. Bodywise this flow is connected with the throat. It is yang energy. In your Energy Picture it is the entry point 4, indicated by number 4 in the golden box.

The Learning Task is to find self expression, adequate to your true self, through your hands, your speech and your actions. First you need to know yourself, your own personality in order to be able to stand up for yourself. You want to become a person who is respected by everyone. The energy that flows through the throat chakra helps you to unfold your ability to communicate and to get into a real exchange with others. This exchange can be diverse. Stand by your activities, which can be expressed in words as well as in silence, in doing as well as in not doing.

Express your practical side through your hands: through writing, manual skills and your hobbies, this way you will please your environment. Express what you want to express from your heart instead of expressing things that you think others expect from you.

If you are too inhibited to express yourself through speaking or practical deeds, if you are afraid to talk to authorities or if you feel inferior in general, you should ask yourself whether you are really expressing your inner being. But the opposite could be the case too. Then you would talk too much and speak in order to speak. You would also tend to hide your real being through hyperactivity and restlessness. This is surely not your real self expression.

In your Energy Picture a red arrow, coming from entry point 4 a, indicates the Passion Path that opens up, if you do not manage your Learning Task "essential self expression". This can cause physical and psychic problems in the parts of your body that are described in the following Passion Path.

It is also possible that this unused energy is already manifesting itself in the throat entry point as a kind of speechlessness or something similar. Especially with multiple intensity you may have problems in this throat region and in your hands (see A 2: Passion Path N).

The following affirmations will help you to fulfill your Learning Task. If you write them down or say them aloud over and over again you will soon feel the positive results.

Through the connection with my true inner self I clearly recognize my special talents.
 The universe has given me special abilities to be expressed for the good of everyone.
 I decide today not to hide my talents anymore, but to express all I am with love.
 My life and my talents are a gift of God. To express my talents fully is my gift to God.

Passion Path H

The amount of the previously quoted energy that you have not invested in the learning task causes problems in the area of your head. This may lead to diseases in your head area. This could lead to problems with your eyes, nose, ears, upper jaw (not lower!) or with the cerebrum. Even a little cold is a warning! Headaches and migraine are clear signs that you have not yet solved your learning task.

Another manifestation could be that you cannot concentrate and focus on one thing. Also restlessness and the inability to make clear decisions are signs that your learning task has not yet been solved. This is also the case if you often get stuck in your thoughts and if you tend to make negative decisions instead of positive ones.

All these symptoms are a hint from your soul that you should take your learning task more seriously. If you don't have any problems like those quoted above you are lucky because it means that you have already solved this task.

The following energy number and the so-called suppression number that have been calculated from the Energy Picture add another meaning to the learning task and Passion Path quoted before.

Interpretation of the Energy Number 43

Make productive decisions, which will also influence your being, just like a pioneer, who wants to try something out and who is open to new possibilities.

Leave the known broad and worn roads that you are on and find new paths to unfold your being. Try out walking on the smaller paths, away from all the hurly-burly and you will be astonished what beauties you will discover. When you try out new things, sometimes your surroundings will not agree; however, do not let yourself get stopped. You will be rewarded for the new experiences with your staying power. Your zest for life will grow and you will develop into a vigorous person.

Lay aside the false, obsolete and distorted pictures of yourself which your environment wants to impress upon you.

It is your task to let your soul guide you to meeting other people and to connect with them in a spiritual, soulful manner. Develop with your entire soul into a being who is also there for others in order to obtain a mutually beneficial relationship. Meeting others is never coincidental and gives you the opportunity to learn where your limits are and how to expand them. Every problem that you avoid is an unsolved problem and will come back to you again at some point.

Make use of creative powers and experience happiness in life through this.

Interpretation of Block Out Number 98

Here is a tension present in the fate axis of the energy picture. It is to be learned to express yourself heartily, hearty and happily. Release yourself of the pressure of your fate through a warm heart. Become enlightened!

Even if you cannot see it yourself yet and you still resist it and block it out, you should strive knowingly with the love of kin for perfection. Strive to become a being that becomes a highly aware and perfect human being through multiplication of his own potential.

If you deny that, than the task is: Mental, knowing recognition of karma by learning out of own spiritual experiences. It is a matter of insights which you want to gain through your own spiritual experiences. That can often be hard work or painful and become a hard slog. Karma is not to be understood as a compensation for committed sins but as an opportunity of the cancellation of mistakes through insight, through more insightful learning. Karma is not a punishment but a mercy.

Become a fully developed person through brotherly love. You want to recognize the presence of god in all that comes towards you. The inner god in every person, in every animal, in every plant, and in every thing. The task is to integrate these insights into all situations of life. To recognize the inner godliness also in the outer success. Let the godly power flow into all things in your life with awareness. To include god is the prerequisite for brotherly love, not compassionate fuss.

Learning Task No. 8: Live the power of union

This energy flows into your navel chakra that belongs to the astral level. Bodywise this entry point is connected to the buttock. With this power that has got a yin character you will want to learn how to use the spiritual forces correctly. In your Energy Picture this is the entry point 8 that is indicated by number 8 in the golden box.

You want to learn how to see life from all sides. Learn how to be in peace with others mentally and also how to come to an agreement in the topics of daily life. Break down the walls that were built up by hatred, envy and prejudice. Build bridges for the good! To make peace is always better than to live in separation and disharmony. It is your task to treat your fellows with love. Also you should learn to treat animals and plants lovingly. Forgive everybody and make peace with your so-called enemies. At least do it mentally, if the others are not yet ready for it. Always watch your energy, your mood, your thinking and your emotions!

Ask yourself: "What lifts me up, gives me power? What is good for me? How do I get in contact with things that bring me down, cost me energy? What makes me feel empty and dull? Then have the courage to act according to your insights and stand up for the experiences you made when applying spiritual laws."

Always be aware of the quality of conversations, movies, TV-films and of the conversation with others. Avoid seeing or listening to anything negative. Also be careful not to become a kind of "soul garbage can" for others!

Meditate, pray and bring the godly life force into your life. Get rid of all thoughts that try to block you. Let unnecessary burdens go - be free. Develop a sense for beauty and aesthetic things. The law "Like within so without" is especially true for you. You will act the way you think!

This Learning Task asks you to bring opposites together by acting out of your feelings. Problems that seemed to be difficult to solve should be solved by seeking unity instead of separation. If you act like that, you act on a higher level and you will automatically elevate others too.

Or are you proud of your quarrels and think you always must have the last word? Do you use your energy to create enemies, separation and resentment? Or do you see yourself in the role of the poor victim if you are not on the winning side all the time?

Do you feel miserable if you are involved in an argument? Do you suffer if there is disharmony? Does every argument cost you a lot of energy?

Always make sure that you use your mental power in a positive way. Beware of the wrong application of these forces because with this inflow, the inflow of union in particular, they could become dangerous, as all the negative energies in your consciousness will manifest! In that case unpleasant and dark entities could possess you and cause all kind of problems including mental illness.

If you use your spiritual power in a positive way and connect yourself with the good forces in the universe you can reach very good spiritual results. In that case you will be able to communicate with the spiritual world and reach true success in life. You could even become a very sensitive person if that is your wish!

In your Kabbalah Energy Picture a red arrow coming from entry point 8 indicates a Passion Path that opens up if you cannot manage to solve the Learning Task "Living in union, create synthesis". This can cause physical and psychic problems at the parts of your body described in the following Passion Path.

It is also possible that this unused energy will manifest itself at its entry point, the buttock, as an unpleasant feeling, causing all kind of problems there (see appendix A 2: suffering path B). Especially with a multiple intensity there could be problems in the area of your buttock.

The following affirmations will help you to fulfill your Learning Task. If you write them down or say them aloud over and over again you will soon feel the positive result.

I recognize the polarity of the energy that is influencing me today.

I can distinguish between people that do me good and those who cost me energy.

I forgive those who have done me wrong and I ask those people for forgiveness that I have badly treated.

I let all blocking thoughts go and concentrate myself on positive things that give me energy.

Passion Path L

The amount of the previously-quoted energy that you have not invested into the learning task causes problems especially in the leg region, but also the hips are involved. Problems with walking, sciatica, varicose veins, swollen legs, fractures, meniscus, sprains, hip problems, corns, accidents and overweight might be signs that you have not solved your learning task entirely.

Your soul wants to tell you: "You are not going the right way in life". If, because of these problems, you hide from life and do not respect your body and treat it badly you should remember your learning task and stop this Passion Path.

The following energy number and the so-called suppression number that have been calculated from the Energy Picture add another meaning to the previously quoted learning task and Passion Path.

Interpretation of the Energy Number 87

You like to be surrounded by beautiful things, which radiate their own harmony, like nice jewellery and new fashion. Your great enthusiasm for work expresses itself through creative art which shows the accentuated full life.

Familiarize yourself with the actual principle of creation. Everything that you love, all that you bring into your life with which you bond spiritually or physically, is a cosmic creation. The aim is to give power and shape to the principle of Trinity, i.e. the cosmic principle of creation, becoming, receiving and transformation. An essential prerequisite to this is the right creative intellect. Just the way you imagine something is how it will fulfil itself in your life.

You have a quick, rational grasp but also a very busy mind. Because of this, your intelligence is often used wrongly and you enter a labyrinth in which you get lost. You are now on the search of finding a way out of this spiritual maze, in which you are. Some power is needed in order to find a new way; to firstly find the exit and then the new aim. To be able to do this, it is necessary to become conscious of your own power of and the flexibility of it. Let things develop with diplomacy and do not bang your head against a brick wall.

Increase the use of spiritual powers. That means to first of all develop trust in God. Then recognize that everything has its meaning. Everything that meets you is divine fate. Also, everything you imagine as a spiritual creator will come towards you.

Positive thinking is having a healing effect on the entire creation. "Whatever your mind/spirit concentrates on is what you will bring into your life." Become conscious of your own spiritual powers, the divine powers, and accept them as presents and convert them into deeds.

You will produce whatever you order spiritually.

That also means for you to sometimes influence wildly behaving powers with spiritual, convincing and charge taking will-power.

Interpretation of Block Out Number 32

Here is a tension present in the feminine axis of the energy picture, a tension of the passive willpower and the active power of creation. It is to be learned that all NO-decisions are obstructive or separating decisions. To not segregate yourself.

Something within you resists to be channel of god. You cannot believe that the godly power, the godly love flows also through you and certainly not that the love of god is passed on by people. You do not quite comprehend that people are supposed to be a tool of god. You still take what you created to be more important than the creator.

You are the one who implements the deeds of god. The task in your life is to let something happen and to have trust that also without your worried input something grows and happens. Godly becoming does not know force. Not wanting to disclose every secret immediately. To treat that, what develops and grows, preciously in the certainness that it will show when it is ready.

Important Hint for this Key Task

The previously indicated learning task has an important key function in your life. As you can see from the Energy Picture this task is the beginning of a chain of learning tasks. Your soul has chosen this task to be number one. That means you have to solve this task first. If you do not solve it, the energy that is not used flows further thus blocking the energy flow where it should not be blocked. The result is that you won't receive the necessary insight for your next task. Then you won't receive positive results and you'll need to ask yourself and analyse why your physical and mental problems are not going away.

Only if you use the total energy of the key task by solving it, the next flow will be free from blockages and the growth of your soul can continue. If you have problems in one area of the following further Passion Path in the chain always make sure to go back to the key task. Try to solve it and then continue with the following tasks. Ask yourself in this case where you failed in your key task. The answer will give you the insight for the following tasks. If there are several following tasks in a row you need to go through this process with all the preceding following tasks.

Learning Task No. 7: Living in union with nature; Oneness with nature

This energy flows into your root chakra that belongs to the ethereal body. With this energy that has a yin character you receive more power to live in correlation with nature. In your Energy Picture this is indicated by entry point 7, marked 7 in the golden box.

Love your life in all aspects. Love our mother earth as a planet, as a mountain and a valley, as earth and water, as a meadow and a river, as a town and a country, as a stone and a gem, as an animal and a plant. Make your peace with nature and the whole creation. Get to know nature really well. Go out into the forest, climb the mountains or enjoy the ocean. Dive into the creation of God! There you will find peace and inner harmony. Feel responsible for our planet earth too, which was created perfectly by God. Therefore it is our task to respect and appreciate this godly gift. Avoid everything that destroys nature as everything is God's creation as you yourself are. Never forget that and try to act in a responsible manner.

Prefer natural materials - clothes, house and working place - eat only natural, healthy food. Explore the secrets of nature in all aspects if you feel like it. Live simply. This does not mean that you have to live poor and without joy. Enjoy the abundance of nature but don't take more than you really need.

Your body belongs to creation too and is a perfect gift of God. Include other people in this closeness with nature since they belong to God's creation too. Make peace with nature, with the female and male aspect, with others and especially with yourself. Be aware of your body and your skin as a part of your body that gets in contact with the environment. Watch your feelings while you caress somebody or if you are caressed by somebody else. Feel how subtle it can be just to hold the hand of another person. Feelings are natural as well. Integrating yourself and others into nature is your Learning Task. The energy that flows into you has a female character and wants to be expressed more through feelings than through the mind.

Experience a sexual relationship as a wonder of nature where all the chakras - which are poled oppositely in men and women - come into a perfect harmony and create a natural union.

Or do you think and act totally different about the above topics? Do you regard your environment as something dead and very technical? Do you think that the forces of nature are not worth being honoured only because you believe everything has to be logical and must be explained by the mind? Do you prefer science that explains everything from the level of the mind? Do you follow rigid philosophies and moral teachings that try to cut off the natural force of life? Do you not respect or honour the different forces and phenomena of nature and do you believe that only things produced by men are really good and trustable? Can you not imagine that the spirit of God dwells within everything and everybody in our world?

Do you block your thinking and acting and forbid yourself to work with the forces of nature? If that is the case then it is your own free will or choice. But then you should not be surprised if you have physical or psychological problems through which your soul is telling you're doing something wrong and that you don't have the right outlook on life!

In your Kabbalah Energy Picture a red arrow coming from entry point 7 indicates a Passion Path that opens up if you can't manage to solve the Learning Task "Living in union with nature". This can cause physical and psychic problems at the parts of your body described in the following Passion Path.

It is also possible that this unused energy already manifests itself at the entry point, in the area of your legs (see A2, Passion Path L) as a feeling that you are standing outside of life. This is especially the case if there is a multiple intensity. This wants to tell you: "You are not going the right way in your life."

The following affirmations will help you to fulfill your Learning Task. If you write them down or pronounce them aloud over and over again you will soon feel the positive result.

I am a part of this planet.

The same force that is carrying me is carrying every other living being on earth.

I treat the resources of our planet consciously and with love.

I nourish my body with good and healthy food and I feed my soul with healthy thoughts.

With double intensity

This energy flows into you. This is a hint that this energy is very important for you and thus your learning task. Your soul wants to give this learning task a high rank. Therefore take it seriously and work with it honestly. The following Passion Path also has this double intensity which means that you will feel your faults very clearly.

Passion Path X

The amount of the previously quoted energy that you have not invested into the learning task causes problems in the area of your sex organs and abdomen. These are problems of the inner and outer sex organs, kidneys and bladder. Men have to struggle with prostata and potency problems and women might have problems with pregnancy and birth. A lack of feelings in partnerships and problems with your partner in general are further signs.

A partner can also be your own company or a job. Whenever you cannot fully say yes to a partnership - whether it is business, a love partner or friends - ,if you do not like sex and show no sexual interest, if you do not feel the "fire of life" burning in you, it is time to work with your learning task. That is also true if you lack motivation and just hang around. It is time to change your direction and to stop this Passion Path.

The following energy number and the so-called suppression number that have been calculated from the Energy Picture add another meaning to the previously quoted learning task and Passion Path.

Interpretation of the Energy Number 76

Fulfil a task with true enthusiasm towards which you feel yourself being drawn and for which you feel called upon. Do your work with complete love and full energy.

Let it be clear that you yourself live in a world of polarity, in a world of contrasts. Creation arises from these polar contrasts, everything created and everything new. You yourself as a child of God shall be your own creator by connecting contrasts consciously. The charismatic order that you feel inside yourself, this feeling of being blessed and being filled by God's spirit, this is the order to have a spiritual and soulful healing effect on people and the entire environment. All your decisions manifest themselves also in your own energy balance. Establish a cheering harmony through understanding and sensitivity for all your activities. Let your gentle and blessed charisma have a healing effect upon others. However, pay attention, whether your deeds are also desired; otherwise you would only waste your energy.

Your attention is turned towards materialism, on physical fulfilment. Recognize that first an intention for fulfilment arises from spirit, a will, and only from that the created, the matter. It is your task now to achieve something more and higher with the created, independent of what it means to you in particular.

You have a stimulating and enriching effect on others through active, healing and serving activities. If you comfort somebody, you have a healing effect on this person and put him into a better condition. Always treat yourself and others healingly. If you are for something, you support it; on the other hand, you will strengthen whatever you are against. Think lovingly in the future, with trust towards others. To heal means: To have faith and trust in the universal, divine and spiritual powers.

Here is a tension present in the masculine axis. It is to be learned through the application of the power of spirit, that creation justly demands are being placed. Do not kick nature with your feet. Do not create concepts in your mind which harm the godly creation.

You probably run easily into danger that you take the created more importantly than the creator. You will often not sense the awareness that god is working in you and through you.

Let your inner sun shine. You want to become aware that god is present in you. This knowing of your godly core, the Christ awareness in you wants to empower you to let the power of love radiate out of your own inner core, such as Jesus said 'love your next like you love yourself'. Whatever you concentrate on, is what will appear in your life. You know of the power of the spirit and want to develop this Christ-awareness. Work with the power of the blessing and of the prayer upon the creation.

Bring yourself as a whole with the abundance of your qualities into the entirety.

Hint for this Follow-up Task:

The previously quoted learning task is a follow-up task. This means that you should solve the key task first and the learning task next. Otherwise the energy that is flowing in will be blocked. In this case you will not understand the seriousness of this task and your efforts will not be very successful. So please learn the key task first, then you will have the insight for the following task.

The Examination of the Complete Energy Picture

The sum of the energy figures on the Energy Picture represent a summary of the tasks present. From the meaning of these figures, we can determine further details about these tasks. It is like a title or a summary which the soul has decided it wants to experience. You can mentally apply these details to every task, in doing so you may view from a different angle. It is this angle, however, that makes life and our tasks so different and so interesting.

The Sum of your Energy Picture Numbers is 206

Interpretation of your Energy Picture Number 206

You know that life is about the interaction of polarities, of contrasting things and about tensions and problems between the sexes. It is necessary to bring all emotional difficulties into harmony. The same is true for business partners. Think of the yin and yang symbol that looks similar, but only builds a unity, a circle, if combined in the right way. From this consciousness that includes body, mind and soul you live your vitality fully.

You need to balance out problems that arise in your erotic and sexual life. You have to learn to grow from worldly love to spiritual and cosmic love. Then you will be connected to cosmic power. Leave tensions behind you by living out of your inner godly being. This will lead you to new perfection.

Be aware that you live in a world of polarity and contrasts. Creation and all creatures originate from this polarity, everything that has been created as well as the new. You yourself as a child of God should be your own creator by consciously connecting this polarity. As a human being you want to learn about this polarity, to experience it and to find your way back to unity with the help of your experiences within polarity.

Many old concepts that are not valid anymore need to be replaced by new actions and values. It is necessary to build up something new and to leave unnecessary things behind you. But before you start to do that you have to be sure what you really want. You need a clear goal to be productive in the cosmic sense. Dare to experiment, to try out new things, to find out which new ideas and new concepts are within you. Do not get stuck in mere theory but rather make your ideas come true.

The creative power which regenerates eternally from the true source of life is the power of the word. This force, mostly of female origin, is the wish and will for creation. It spends or destroys life. It is creating space and dwells in it. It causes birth and death, commitment and parting. You experience ideals and visions so that your consciousness can decide whether it wants to fulfil them or not. Your spiritual expectations and your wishes how to live determine your thinking. Your decisions are carried out spontaneously without conscious guidance.

These ideals trigger a strong longing for fulfilment, a striving for connection and neutralization, for quality, sympathy, welfare, a willingness to make sacrifices, customization, subordination, consideration and motherliness. There is always the wish involved to possess the corresponding object. You experience admiration, attention, relationships, separations and changes in ethical and moral principles. Quality, charity, patience and faith should be your topics. You will realize your spiritual concept yourself.

The Relationship Yang - Yin

You can also learn about the relationship of your yin and yang flows from the 'Kabbalah Energy Picture'. It is calculated from the number of male yang flows 2-5 and the number of female yin flows of the entry points 7-10.

As you have increased yin flows you have more yin tasks. This is a sign that you want to emphasize the female, intuitive side in this life. You want to learn to become receptive, to allow things to happen without being active yourself. You like to let an idea mature before you act. But if you still want to live it up and to be very active, if you want to tell others what they have to do, you are not acting with the energy you are supposed to. Why do you need to prove that you are strong and active if something goes wrong? These are not at all the qualities you need to learn. You must let all things ripen with feeling and intuition, like a woman lets her child just grow on the physical level while she is preparing herself very carefully on the intellectual level. But please understand this correctly. In reality, it is not all about living this yin strength but about learning your yin tasks and not forgetting the male energy.

The larger the last number in this yang-yin relationship is, the more meaningful it is for your studying tasks.

The Energy Picture Referring to the Tree of Life

You are now familiar with your life tasks and the points on your body in which your soul is "knocking on the door" to make you listen. Please take a few moments to look within yourself, and ask, what does this mean for me? Maybe it would help you to ask yourself the following questions: What would I like to do? Who or what is stopping me from doing this? Can I open up to others and do I trust? What people, situations, or things make me feel good, and which ones hurt me? How can I achieve order in my life? I am sure you could find the answer if you could look at your own problems from a distance. Lastly, you can and must attain this knowledge and decide for yourself what do I want and what do I not want.

In the next part, I will give you deeper answers to aid you in the growth of your soul. These are answers which will bring closer to yourself the original reason of your own being. Furthermore, you will be told of the tools needed in which to attain your goal and of course the knowledge of the goal itself. The why, what and where pertaining to your soul is then known to you. When you possess all this knowledge, then you can work safely and purposefully.

2. Section: The Kabbalah Tree of Life.

The coloured picture "The Kabbalah Tree of Life" to be found on page 4, shows your own personal Tree of Life. The coloured circle shown in this complex and harmonic illustration, show the 10 sefirot. These carry hebrew names and symbols of ancient cosmic powers, or rather the aspects of our creator. For the last thousand years or so, this Tree of Life has been handed down through the Kabbalah. It is the graphic representation of the powers in the universe and the way they all work together; showing forms of energy and forms of intelligence. These energies have an influence over the whole universe and therefore mankind and our souls. With this Tree of Life, you can see the essence of the universe, of God and of mankind represented. A short description of these 10 sefirot can be found in attachment B1. Please do not confuse the numbers in the Tree of Life with those of your learn assignment in part 1. They are not directly connected to one another.

These 10 Sefirot can be connected together, the result of which gives 22 paths, counting from 0 to 21. These represent the 22 paths which are introduced in tarot. When one connects two of these either statistic or passive energies, the outcome is movement and momentum. These paths describe your concious energies which occur from the connecting of two of the 10 sefirot. A short description of the 22 paths can be found in attachment B2.

From this Tree of Life, one can not only gain knowledge about the God and the world, or creation as we know it, but also our own personal creation which in turn gives us information about our spiritual development. This pertains to every being who wishes to apply this knowledge.

This concious energy is of great importance to your soul, your life lessons and paths and can be found in the Tree of Life by using the Kabbalah calculation. The result is then the topic of origin, which is illustrated in red and can be referred to as karma, the lesson of change or transformation will be shown as yellow, and the goal subject will be shown as a green path. These three subjects are well illustrated and are important for your further development chosen by your soul as the way in which you would be advised to travel.

The use of the expression "conscious energy" used frequently in this description, is to be understood as a spiritual quality. This quality is to recognise that such a thing exists, that one can work with this power and that by doing so, in our daily lives we will be led to higher goals. All of this is an aspect of God, and we are allowed to work with this higher energy in order to grow spiritually.

In the second section, you will find the following general and personal points being addressed:

- * The general meaning of the topic of origin (karma)
- * The meaning of your own calculated personal karma
- * The general meaning of the subject of change or transformation
- * The meaning of your own calculated personal subject of change
- * The description of your own character traits
- * The description of your cosmic events
- * The general description of goals
- * The meaning of your own calculated personal goals
- * The general kabbalistic meaning of names
- * The kabbalistic meaning of your names

Further personal particulars can be found on the page entitled "The Kabbalah Tree of Life"

* Particular good days for you in the month: on these days you are able to progress rapidly with your life lessons. You will meet people or situations in which you could be challenged, or maybe they just want to be nice to you. It will depend on your mood, on your thinking pattern, or your basic attitude what you want from these situations. You may want to view this as your exercise partner. Some of these days will most definitely be tests, others will be days of joy and celebration. On these joyful days, it would be advisable to write important letters, contact your lawyer, start a new company or project, start a new job, plan a journey or generally to start something in motion which you have always wanted to do. On these days you will be rewarded with success. Please remember, however, that hopeless tasks will be as unsuccessful on these days as in any other, and that some projects may take a little longer to realise.

General Meaning of the Topic of Origin

The topic of origin is directly connected to your maiden name and the name you are called by. It is a kind of company label which says which tasks you want to do in life.

The topic of origin is the topic that you have been born in to. It shows the intention of your new incarnation. It is the very basis of why you came onto earth and shows what you want to learn this time. Maybe you have not accomplished this special task well in your earlier incarnations. So your soul has the wish to try again and succeed in this incarnation. At any rate, it is the basic topic in your personal school of life and therefore you have to understand it and work with it before you can deal with your aim topic which shows you what you can achieve in this life. This topic of origin also gives you a hint as to what your karma is and why you have come onto earth again. Karma should not be understood as compensation for committed sins but as a possibility of dissolving former faults by carefully studying them. Karma is not punishment but mercy.

With the description of your topic in the following section clarity will certainly come into your life. At the beginning you will lack the consciousness energy of the topic of origin. All of a sudden you will recognize an event that makes it clear to you what your real task is. This special year in your life is also indicated on the sheet of the 'Kabbalah Tree of Life'. You should be conscious of your topic of origin and should have recognized it. This detail can vary by +1 or -1 year. Perhaps you will immediately know what this event was in your life and what it meant in connection with your topic of origin, if you have already reached this age.

. . At the age of about 32 years, you should be aware of the topic of origin!

Your Personal Topic of Origin: The way 20

This way is marked red in the Tree of Life between the elemental force Hod and the elemental force Malkuth. See the short description of the 10 Sefirot in the appendix B1.

The dynamic energy which results from the interaction of these two elemental forces, which you are to use for your work on the topic of origin, is titled 'awareness energy of flexibility'.

By this, a revival, a new beginning, a renewal, a resurrection, an awakening and a rebirth is meant, a liberation from the inside out, which is also strengthened through certainty. This topic can only be fulfilled in connection with other people, you should approach other people. You are receiving strength for insight; to get away from materialism and to turn more towards man. Move in direction of the new, good and right things.

Perhaps you have until now or even in earlier lives abused great, spiritual powers or may be you only didn't use them, therefore, you will now more and more come into situations which will make clear to you that you are supposed to bring something new into motion; to bring the actual as well as the spiritual life into motion again. To do so, a reorientation is necessary and a change of your attitude towards life.

Intensively becoming aware of your own motives and your own behaviours will also let you take on responsibility for them. Ask yourself: 'Which new phase of life am I currently starting? Which deep insights do I have with respect to my own personality? Of which comments am I afraid, or whom or what is trying to test me? In my opinion, where is my responsibility and where isn't it? In my opinion, which are the causes of my guilt feelings? Which type of mutual living and cooperation do I produce? What occupies me fully and completely? Which benchmark of others injures me? Where am I immovable, rigid and stiff or also stubborn?

Just like you judge over others is how you will be judged too. The desire for renewal and unity will resolve your feelings of guilt. Find a new basis for a pattern for living together and for cooperation in order to cooperate efficiently and unanimously. The desire to completely merge with someone else, to be in agreement with the views, will persuade you to do something new.

'My bond with totality gets stronger every day'.

General Meaning of the Transformation Topic

The transformation topic shows your strengths which you can use and are supposed to use throughout your whole life. It is easy for you to work with them since these qualities have been within you since your birth. These character strengths and weaknesses of yours point towards the individual subtleties of how your problems as well as your life tasks want to be solved. It is a tool that was given to you to tackle these tasks and to solve, integrate and transform them. The transformation topic represents your predominant characteristics. Primarily use this tool for your aim topic but also for all your life tasks. You are supposed to work with this tool and realize your plans and aims. However, also a tool needs to be understood and taken care of in the right way; therefore, the following Kabbalah Tree of Life path wants to make you familiar with this tool.

Your Personal Transformation Topic: The way 5

This way is marked yellow in the Tree of Life between the elemental force Chokmah and the elemental force Chesed. See the short description of the 10 Sefirot in the appendix B1.

The dynamic energy which results from the interaction of these two elemental forces, which you are to use as your tools for your work on the transformation topic, is titled 'energy awareness of the lived religion'. You want to master your life tasks with this power, which is already anchored in your awareness and in your character.

Retain and pass on spiritual knowledge and traditions, just like a mediator of spiritual powers. Pass on the personal experiences in faith. The wonders of the life happen on the right side of the Tree of Life. The blockades of old reasoning are resolved and you will find a new meaning behind everything. It is your task to get your own religion out of the sacred ghetto and to remember back to the true origin.

In order to get closer to your tasks, you ask: For whose leadership do I wait? What would I like to learn? Where have I broken the rules in my opinion? Who would hold me responsible for it? Which limits can I not exceed in my opinion? What do I rebel against? Whom or what do I fear? Which ideas do I have to do justice first of all in my opinion?

This consciousness of the lived religion has to be understood as a father figure or a spiritual teacher who instructs you under an intuitive leadership. Allow to be given a piece of advice, accept it and pass the acquired knowledge and skills on to others. This means to submit to the discipline and loyalty of this spiritual teacher or also to an organisation, a country or a certain doctrine, and to identify with the opinions and rules of this group or culture. Keep on discovering the mechanisms of power and learn the application of these rules as well as bringing them into harmony with the ethical laws. This means to recognize and apply the law of good and bad; put down the conservative moral concepts which are unworldly and pedantic. Get to freedom of your thoughts, ideas and feelings. Do not feel as a victim of wrong ideas and do not be afraid of punishment and control by wrong authorities.

Keep focusing on two central points of the Sermon on the Mount: Whatever you want men to do to you, do first to them. And: Ask and it will be given to you.

"I am valuable just the way I am, with my ideas, thoughts and feelings".

Further Character Traits

Next to the path of change further personal characteristics are described that are based on further calculations of your name. Even if you are aware of many of them, it is still important to know them more exactly and to have an overall picture of one's own character. If you know your character traits exactly you can understand your reactions and actions better. Every character has always got two parts, good and bad. In the following character traits mostly the positive sides are listed. Through different influences due to education, school, environment and dealing with other people these positive sides can turn into negative traits. This is very often the case when you exaggerate your good qualities. It is always important to act moderately.

½Since you are endowed with physical strength, perseverance and determination you do not hesitate to act with courage and self-confidence. You easily overcome all kinds of obstacles through consistency and courage. You are a religious seeker and you are fond of secret sciences. As a person of action with a good gift of observation and power of concentration you are sometimes impulsive but always astute and clever. Beware of spending money carelessly and egoistical compulsiveness.

Your will and your energy are the inner strength for your positive outlook on life. 'I want' and 'I can' is your motto. You have good manual abilities and can also work in an artistic field. You can successfully use your skillful mode of expression through your hands, writing and language very well in professional and private tasks. You debate with pleasure, want to discover everything. You understand the ideas and situations of other people and support them if you are convinced of them. You are interested in sciences and therefore concentration and thinking is important for you. In many things you do pioneering work and you are a true companion. But since you are interested in so many things there is the danger of being distracted and not concluding them. Beware of recklessness and firm intentions made in haste. If you lack initiative you sometimes delay things unnecessarily.

Like a representative of higher intellect you plead for justice and the dignity of man. You do not just want to talk about religion but want to live it. Mildness, mercy, an open heart, a religious philosophy are your positive character traits, but also austerity when appropriate. Your creative abilities are mostly intellectual. You are interested in literature and religious scientific topics as well as in the technical field. Your talents are mostly appreciated. You generally act seriously and are business-minded. You always verify things conscientiously and you radiate order, harmony, honesty, politeness and steadfast faith. Avoid hypocrisy, dogmatism, lack of moderation and boasting.

You are insistent, discreet and restrained and endowed with good practical skills. Using many words you explain and give reasons for everything including the last detail. Sometimes it takes time for you to understand greater contexts, but once you do there's no forgetting. You have many friends, since you are regarded as reliable. You stick to your beliefs and defend them fearlessly, often in a dogmatic and conservative way. Women want to have a beautiful house and love flowers. Men provide everything on the material level. You should not lose yourself and come down to earth when dealing with your inclination towards investigating natural sciences. You should avoid outbursts of rage, exaggerated sensuality and sluggishness.

General Remarks on Cosmic Influences

It is an old and well proven fact that the same events and experiences occur again and again during everybody's life in a more or less similar way. From the point of view of the Kabbalah these events are regarded as cosmic influences. Cosmic influences can be discovered by transforming your two names into numbers. The interpretation of these numbers will give you valuable and significant hints for your life. You are warned of certain actions but also encouraged to act if it is necessary. It is always important to know you and to try to find out what the real problem is and how it can be changed. These hints are topics throughout your whole life and you will always be confronted with them so that you can make decisions and learn by doing that.

Your personal cosmic influences that are then described can also be understood as a kind of character description as it shows how you influence certain things or how you are influenced by them.

Interpretation of the Personal Cosmic Influences

Learn to obtain full harmony in your thinking and in your behavior. The way you think determines your feelings. A healthy intellect does not only bring spiritual but also physical health. Avoid overdoing anything, so that you will not lose balance in your life.

By connecting the material with the intellectual you will create beautiful things. This is the only way to avoid exaggerated egoism, strong impulsiveness, lower passions and desires.

You are a good natured person. But you are in danger of being taken for a ride. Also in business affairs trouble can arise easily because of your carelessness. If you do not want to suffer any losses, you must carefully examine what kind of contracts you sign. For you the following words are true: "Trust is good, but control is better".

There are many possibilities for success in your life which you use. But along with your success the number of enemies, false friends and people that envy you increases. This results in failure. You should curb your impulsiveness somewhat.

You are a good-natured person and you have great confidence in your fellow beings. This holds some dangers in everyday life. You should not participate in a company or society in which you actively collaborate because it would lead to aggravation, frustration and failures. Your strength lies in other realms. If you question yourself deep inside you will discover the areas in which your confidence is in demand.

Your pioneering and future-oriented ideas are a little too revolutionary and often shockingly new.

Because these ideas are not acceptable they come to nothing and cause disappointments. You often have to fight hard in life. However, you attract a lack of success mostly through your own behaviour. Try to control your aggressiveness and spontaneous actions without thinking.

General Meaning of the Aim Topic

The aim topic is dependent on your first given name, the first name that you use (these are not necessarily identical) and your date of birth. Under the section topic of origin you were given your age by which you should recognize your topic of origin. Your soul presses you to proceed to the aim topic once you have reached this age. It is the aim in your life and because you are devoting yourself to this topic, you will also receive an answer to the question: 'Why am I on earth'.

If you feel the inner impulse to start with something new or if you ask yourself if this is all that life had in for you, or if there is may be something else to do, than you have certainly reached the threshold of this aim topic. Now is the time to deal with this topic. Even if you have already exceeded this age quite a bit, you can still start with it. Perhaps it will be easier as you will have already made various other experiences.

However, you will only have the necessary inner freedom to tackle your aim topic once you have recognized and mastered the topic of origin. It certainly isn't easy to accept, assimilate and implement all of the characteristics of the path that describes your aim topic. However, your soul has set itself this target and you will therefore receive the strength and energy to reach your aim.

Your Personal Aim Topic: The way 6

This way is marked green in the Tree of Life between the elemental force Binah and the elemental force Tiferet. See the short description of the 10 Sefirot in the appendix B1.

The dynamic energy which results from the interaction of these two elemental forces, which you are to use for your work on the aim topic, is titled 'magnetic energy awareness'.

These are energies which can be described with a soulful, responsible attraction. You want to learn that which you deem to be particularly attractive and want to fill your entire soul and heart. It is for you to make the choice of your heart and to exert attraction on people and onto things. A responsible looking after, an extreme dedication, is meant under this strength which is, of course, similarly important for the two sexes. The sexual aspect is not to be seen in the foreground but a loving giving away of yourself and unconditional, egoless love.

You want to learn a harmonious interplay of heart and intellect. To do so, the female and the manly aspects are to be recognized and united into themselves and into others. This applies to your human counterpart just like to all other things. Contrasts meet for certain upon each other which need to be unravelled. An understanding partner can be a valuable, supplementary help when one is wrapped up in a network of relations, cooperation and engagement. A community, an organization or a company can also be this partner.

Take on the responsibility for your own decisions and your own behaviour. Escape from feelings of guilt and take balanced decisions; then you can reach unconditional love and your search for unity becomes a certainty and does not remain a longing. Fix the direction of your new ways even if you do not see any clear aim yet.

Why don't you also ask yourself which relation keeps you intensively occupied; which aspect of yourself do you recognize? Which choice or decision are you standing in front of at the present? What would you like to unite and what would you like to let go? Give your life new prospects and new ways through this loving and attracting energy. Use your charm when it is about soulful meetings. Radiate this strength in all relations, and then somebody will always be there for you, to help you or only to simply listen to you.

'I am worth all love, affection and friendship'.

The Meaning of Your Name

At your birth, you were given a very special name. This name consists of your first name and your family name which we will now decipher using the Kabbalah to give you a detailed interpretation. To do this, we use the letters and change them into numbers and then we use these figures to make a detailed analysis. These figures tell us the goals your soul wishes to attain in this lifetime. Please view the following three descriptions as the scenery on a stage, the stage of life, in which you have the starring role. The following text describes the scenery, and you will recognise your own role.

The Numeric Value for your Called Name and Birth Name is 229

Interpretation of the Numeric Value of your Names: 229

By integration of all powers, particularly the power of the spiritual, of love, of imagination and creation it is possible to bring head and heart, intellect and soul into harmony. By going beyond physical experiences you are able to recognize the final metaphysical connections with your inner wisdom. You will find insight and enlightenment through meditation and solitude which will enable you to dive deeply within yourself and thus find your own inner light and wisdom.

„A force inside you that arises from the experience you have already made is moving you forward into spiritual realms. Spiritual education, religion, mysticism and clairvoyant abilities are the subjects you can study. There is a time ahead of you in which you will read and study a lot about spirituality as you are on the path of spiritual awakening.

You understand very fast and you have an alert mind which makes it easy for you to understand the spirit of the time. You can develop good intellect and high intelligence. With a sensitive reaction to outward impressions you have a good receptiveness. You can analyze things well and judge a thought process from a different observation point. Also you have a good intuition and the ability to get in contact with supernatural things.

However, sometimes you do not use your numerous qualities and intelligence wisely and therefore you are trapped in a labyrinth where you hopelessly go astray. You have to make an effort to find the exit and a new aim. To find this aim it is necessary to become conscious of your own strength, of your own flexibility. Let things prosper with diplomacy and do not go with the head through the wall.

Don't let yourself be stopped by material things from making spiritual progress. You should leave unclear ideas, fear and uncertain feelings behind you by searching and finding true knowledge.

Your good intellect and your diplomatic behaviour provide you with many possibilities, also in the field of art, to develop yourself. You are able to achieve a lot and might become an authority, be famous and honoured, reach positions in which you have to be very responsible. Your own opinion about right and order are very strong and prevent you acknowledging the existence of cosmic law and order ruling everything that happens in life. Overcome your own mundane authority and accept the existence of higher forces. It is a cosmic law that exactly what you fear most will happen to you. As long as you demonize things, they will always get back to you. If you can accept in a loving way this will disappear and not come back.

Try to lead a good and moral life. Only then will fortune be positive and bring you happiness and luck. You should avoid being too sensitive and all kinds of exaggeration, especially in the field of sensuality. Otherwise, you would lose your vitality and weaken your constitution.

General Meaning of the Secondary Aim Topic

The secondary aim topic is based on all the names that are mentioned in your birth certificate as well as your date of birth. What is the meaning of the secondary aim? You have several first names which are hardly used, apart from your forename. They are stated in your birth certificate and mostly are not in further use. But regarding the Kabbalah calculations these hidden names are important because they add a broader meaning. These hidden names are also used for the calculation. The result shows a further, secondary aim in your life.

At a certain age or time in life many people feel that now other things have become more important to them. This is not the crisis usually described as midlife crisis as this inner radical change can happen very early in your life or when you are older. This is the right time to get in touch with the secondary aim topic.

It often happens that people suddenly become aware of all their birth names and sometimes these - so far neutral names - sound particularly beautiful to them. This also indicates that it is time to deal with the secondary aim topic.

If you have recognized your first aim in life and mastered it, you will then have the necessary maturity to work with your secondary aim topic. Your soul itself has set this broader aim and you will get the strength and energy to reach this goal.

Your Secondary Aim Topic: The way 11

This way is marked blue in the Tree of Life between the elemental force Geburah and the elemental force Tiferet. See the short description of the 10 Sefirot in the appendix B1.

The dynamic energy which results from the interaction of these two elemental forces, which you are to use for your work on the secondary aim topic, is titled 'energy awareness of trusting faith power', the spiritual power.

This believing trusting energy awareness is a trust in God which also often goes beyond reason. The sentence: 'I am the sunbeam which is inseparably connected to the ancient sun ' indicates that you are also a co-creator, if you are conscious of the presence of God. It is all about following an idea with spiritual power; with good, building up thoughts and to prepare it so that it can be implemented. The execution does not necessarily need to be done by you; you are supposed to be the initiator, the leader and conductor, the spiritual father or the spiritual mother.

Ask yourself: 'What would you like to bring into balance? Before which decision do I stand? Are you clear about the pros and cons of a matter? What is sincere in your opinion? Which consequences do you expect due to things you have done in the past? What would you like to make public? In which area do you function as a mediator or negotiator? Which project do you want to tackle and manage?

If you then recognize your own spiritual strength, you will master life and take balanced decisions, make a commitment with confidence, restore the equilibrium with balance and conclude contracts through sincere negotiations. See the things under various viewpoints. If you give account to yourself with a good conscience or can take on the responsibility for yourself, you are getting close to the aim of this task.

'I act upon the basis of my conscious and of my spiritual motives'.

The Meaning of Your Complete Name

Similar to the name translation on the previous pages, your whole name will now be used in the calculation, including given names which are not in use. The result of this will show you, as in the previous secondary life goal, a description of your role in Act 2 of your life. It is the description of your role upon a stage set with new scenery. This new stage grows in meaning for you after you have reached a certain age.

The Numeric Value for all First Names + Birth Name is 280

Interpretation of the Numeric Value of your Entire Name: 280

Your creative talents manifest in many ways: in harmonious relationships, a harmonious environment and in the field of beauty and fashion. Do not let yourself be disturbed in your artistic ideas. But you should also pay attention to harmony on a higher level, a harmony within your soul.

The creative power which regenerates eternally from the true source of life is the power of the word. This force, mostly of female origin, is the wish and will for creation. It spends or destroys life. It is creating space and dwells in it. It causes birth and death, commitment and parting. You experience ideals and visions so that your consciousness can decide whether it wants to fulfil them or not. Your spiritual expectations and your wishes how to live determine your thinking. Your decisions are carried out spontaneously without conscious guidance.

These ideals trigger a strong longing for fulfilment, a striving for connection and neutralization, for quality, sympathy, welfare, a willingness to make sacrifices, customization, subordination, consideration and motherliness. There is always the wish involved to possess the corresponding object. You experience admiration, attention, relationships, separations and changes in ethical and moral principles. Quality, charity, patience and faith should be your topics. You will realize your spiritual concept yourself.

Your attention is focused on the material world, on physical fulfilment. You should realise that the spirit creates the intention and the will to do something. Only out of spirit can something be created on the material level. It is your task to achieve something that goes further and higher whatever you may create. However, there is the danger that what you create seems more important to you than the creator behind it.

If you are beyond duality and the tension of yin and yang by working with your inner strength of I AM then you are travelling the road to perfection, enlightenment and you will become a fully developed person. You are moved to transform a divine, spiritual idea into a material form. As you possess inner knowledge about the laws of nature and due to your strong will to live you will experience new insights, enlightenment and inspiration.

You must try to harmonize material patterns with your inner spiritual strength. You should be aware that love on the physical level can only be successful and give true happiness if it is lived on a spiritual level in a deep spiritual unity and with justice. To reach this aim you have to bring your outer life in order. Otherwise you cannot reach this inner unity and harmony. Your task is to react to the inflow of the vital will of God, to discover and understand the real meaning of life on earth.

Out of the many possibilities you should search for the one that leads to realization. Everything is still open regarding the results. It is only necessary to start with a plan, and then a suitable opportunity will come. Trying something out, risking something, new leads to something higher. This is the beginning of a manifestation of something positive in your life. Be creative!

You have the possibility and opportunity successfully to create experiences, a positive transition from the past into the future. Let yourself be guided by your vague desires and think and read about topics that deal with life after death and higher dimensions.

Do not let yourself be handicapped by the variety of possibilities in fulfilling your aim in life. Do not listen to the voice of your ego! “

„Quite often experiences that people over 50 have to go through are not karma from a former life, but consequences they themselves have caused in this life.

You want to see the good and positive in everything and everybody you meet. You see the divine in every person, in every animal, in every plant, just everywhere! It is necessary to integrate this knowledge into every situation. Recognizing divinity in external success is important. Elementary forces of physical nature create space for your new unfolding.

Let this power consciously affect everything in your life. Including God in everything is the best condition for real charity. Do not confuse this charity with sensual or physical love.

A new era has dawned, which means experimenting intellectually and spiritually. All possibilities are open to you. Wake up and create a new world. Listen to your intuitions and do not be afraid to realize them with wisdom, even if they appear to be utopian ideas.

You often have trouble with the material world in realizing your insights. It is up to you how to deal with it. If you cannot follow your inspirations with your intellect try to let decisions come from your inner self without being influenced by outside circumstances. Through your influence the material and spiritual can come together at the highest level. Maximum worldly knowledge and wisdom can then express themselves.

Conclusion

Now you are required to think about what the individual points mean to you. These insights should be your own. If you always sat down to an already prepared meal, you would never learn how to cook. Here, you have all the ingredients and the recipe. It is now in your hands whether you turn your soup-of -life into a delicacy, or to let it burn.

If particular texts appear double in this document, it is not by accident, but this is of particular importance to you. You will find everything you need to know about specific subjects mentioned in this analysis. It could be that you dismiss one thing or another that you read because you say that is not applicable to you. Please try to realise that this may be the case at the moment, but don't throw away these observations, instead try to meditate on them and maybe some different questions will start to make themselves heard. For example, what exactly does my soul want to tell to me? Does it want me to pay particular attention to something? Are you following your path as well as you could? As you read this analysis, you may find it helpful to write your own notes along side, or to underline particular points that you find important at this time.

As you get older, you have no doubt fulfilled many of your life lessons and possibly have no problem with the shown Passion Path. Sometimes it is difficult to remember that you have already solved a particular problem. If you discover that you have no problem with your Passion Path, then you can be assured that you have already learned that particular lesson. Please don't forget, that illness is not to be seen as punishment, instead that your soul wishes to draw attention to a particular issue. Your soul wishes you to refrain from straying from your path of light and truth.

A tip: If you should find parts of this text too extensive to re-read, please highlight the parts that are of particular interest to you and your soul, that is, the parts in which you need to work harder on. Once highlighted, it will be easier for you to pick out your most important issues.

I now wish you many new insights and a whole new feeling of well-being for your body and soul.

Appendix B1: Short Description of the 10 Sefirot

° Kether (Sefira 1)

The highest form of Gods power. The pure Being. It is the original spirit.

° Chokmah (Sefira 2)

Is wisdom, the highest father, the father-principle, the highest yang force, the original idea, procreation and original dynamics. The engine of the whole universe. It is the channel through which the power of Kether can flow. It is the greatest father who said "Let there be Light".

° Binah (Sefira 3)

Is the understanding, the highest form of love, the highest mother, the mother principle, the highest yin force, the motherly comfort of all life, and all beings. It is the order and the stability principle of the incoming energy of Chokmah.

° Chesed (Sefira 4)

Stands for forgiveness and love, it moves and stretches boundaries. It is here that the kingdom of the micro cosmos begins. It represents the translation of abstract into concrete forms. It is the spiritual thought that wishes to be turned into matter. It allows boundaries to be crossed. All spiritual virtues originate here.

° Geburah (Sefira 5)

This stands for the force and the power, the strictness, the law and righteousness. It is the powerful and disciplined principle, a problem solving creativity. It is the courage to find a solution.

° Tiferet (Sefira 6)

As the central Sefira, it stands for the power Christ, the inner sun in creation, the knowledge of Christ "I AM the way." Beauty, devotion, and balance are the virtues. It stands for balance in the middle of the Tree of Life. It also stands for the highest self, that Christ wants to be for us.

° Netzach (Sefira 7)

It is the strength, the determination that leads to victory. It is the creative imagination, hope and healing. The world of instinct and feelings also belong here.

° Hod (Sefira 8)

It is described as splendid with a shining radiance. It is the professional competence that brings order and structure into all things. Feelings begin to take form and intellectuality have an effect.

° Jesod (Sefira 9)

Jesod is the fundamental ruler and the centre of the lower self, our subconsciousness. It is the root of intuition, of ideas.

° Malkuth (Sefira 10)

It stands for the kingdom of God, the earth, the physical world, matter and reality. All physical and psychological strengths come into effect here. Here you can reap what you sow on other levels.
